Website Accessibility Statement

SchoolAccessAudits.com is committed to ensuring our website is accessible to all users, including those with disabilities, visual stress, dyslexia and other access needs. We aim to provide a positive, inclusive online experience and follow recognised accessibility standards to make our content clear, usable and easy to navigate.

We work towards compliance with the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1 Level AA and continually review our website to improve accessibility. This includes using mixed-case lettering to support readability, ensuring strong colour contrast, providing clear headings and structure, and avoiding unnecessary complexity in language. Our content is designed to be compatible with screen readers, keyboard navigation and assistive technologies.

If you experience any difficulty accessing information on this website, or if you require content in an alternative format, please contact us. We will respond promptly and ensure you receive the information you need in a suitable and accessible format.
